School Description

The CCHS faculty is committed to helping students achieve more success not only on state tests, but also by completing programs and pathways that will lead to more opportunities when they graduate. Pursuant to this, the school's stated mission is: "Cathedral City High School, in partnership with parents and community members, is dedicated to providing an educational experience that guides students toward successful, fulfilling lives as responsible, productive, and global citizens. Students are expected to acquire academic, artistic, athletic, and technical skills in preparation for college and careers. A culture of health-consciousness and ethical behaviors is fostered by the school. The CCHS community values diversity and offers the training and experience that expands students' awareness to include an appreciation and acceptance of practices and point of view found in other parts of the world." Furthermore, CCHS staff members collaborate regularly to align instruction with the Common Core State Standards and the district focus statement: "Students will be able to construct viable arguments, build upon other' ideas, and critique the reasoning of others, both orally and in writing, across content areas, using evidence from multiple sources." In accordance with current best practices, the CCHS staff has established cross-curricular and departmental collaborative teams that work as a Professional Learning Community (PLC) to examine data and to set school and achievement goals. Site departments and collaborative teams meet on a weekly basis to work toward identified priorities. The Cathedral City High School School-wide Learner Outcomes are: "All graduating students are prepared to further their education. All students have the ability to: read, write, listen, speak, and communicate effectively and solve mathematical problems accurately. Use current technology. All students can: correctly use computers and adapt to current technologies and find, evaluate, use a variety of software applications, and safely use the Internet and other sources to communicate globally. Enter the world of work and careers. All students: understand the importance of proper work ethics and habits, know how to seek and secure employment, conduct themselves in a professional manner, and demonstrate positive attitudes and global citizenship Live in a society of diverse cultures and customs. All students: respect diversity, appreciate the art and music of the global community and value the history of their own culture and the cultures of others." Cathedral City High School opened in September 1991. While CCHS draws its student population from several desert communities, most students live in Cathedral City, California. In the years since it opened, CCHS has grown from 700 students to an enrollment of nearly 1,700 students reported in the 2015 CBEDs data. At this time almost 86% of the students represent a minority population.

About the SARC

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school at 760-770-0100 or the district office.

C. Engagement

State Priority: Parental Involvement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the Parental Involvement State Priority (Priority 3):

- Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions for the school district and each schoolsite.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement

CCHS implements the practice of providing accessibility and opportunities for parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory students. Parents are made aware of parental involvement opportunities during Back to School Night, ELAC meetings, meetings with administration, and biannual Parent Institutes for Quality Education. At all school events, and at community events that include CCHS educators, parents are encouraged to participate in its organizations as a means of communicating their needs and concerns with staff members and a way to add their input in order to promote a far-reaching, broad-based foundation of support for the academic and social growth of all students.

Parent participation in organizations that support the academic and extracurricular activities of their students at CCHS include: CCHS School Site Council, ELAC, CCHS Lion's Pride Education Fund and several CCHS booster programs. Parents attending these meetings are encouraged to share their proposals and recommendations for improving the school's culture. Written communication (in English and Spanish) is distributed at the "Coffee with the Principal" meetings, and the CCHS Counseling Department's "Heart of the Lion," which is published five times a year. The Counseling Department sends home notices informing parents of evening informational sessions that are provided to parents who would like help with college applications and financial aid support. The CCHS website lists information about important dates, school activities and events, as well as contact information. CCHS has an online news application, CC News, which students in the Digital Arts and Technology Academy (DATA) produce. Parents were also active members of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) Accreditation Focus Groups and participated in the updating of the Schoolwide Learner Outcomes (SLOs). The Health and Environmental Academy of Learning (HEAL), DATA, and AVID involve parents through introductory meetings, the application process, and regular parent meetings. Parents are also informed on high school and college requirements through evening grade-level presentations. Parents have been heavily involved in the formation of the International Baccalaureate program, which is in its first year of implementation for the 2015-2016 school year.

State Priority: School Climate

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the School Climate State Priority (Priority 6):

- Pupil suspension rates, pupil expulsion rates; and other local measures on the sense of safety.

School Safety Plan

CCHS reviews policies and procedures of the evacuation plan each fall. The SSP committee (comprised of administrators, teachers, students, security personnel, and parents) has identified goals and objectives. The aim of the plan is to promote a "caring and connected" school culture where all students feel safe and supported. Implementation includes: improving communication with parents in order to inform all parents and students about school policies; raising the number of at-risk students participating in support groups and campus activities, and reducing physical confrontations. The Link Crew/Peer Counseling program has trained more than 30 students each year to connect with ninth graders as a support group and to provide peer mediation counseling. The district has provided to the site a Prevention Specialist whose main purpose is working with at-risk students. The SSP plan outlines related activities that must be undertaken to achieve the objectives, lists needed resources, provides an action timeline, lists responsible persons, and includes budget resources.

Professional Development provided for Teachers

Professional development has been a driving force at CCHS. Many faculty members have attended conferences and institutes designed to strengthen instructional methodology that impacts diverse and minority student populations. Since June 2009, staff members have attended at least one Model Schools Conference or seminar presented by the International Center for Leadership in Education (ICLE). Since the summer of 2011, several teachers have attended the Quality Teaching for English Learners (QTEL) institute. CCHS teachers have continued to attend AVID training conferences annually. The District office also worked with our site to send 11 Advanced Placement (AP) teachers to a week-long AP training. DATA faculty participants have attended and presented at the annual Computer Using Educators (CUE) conference. The DATA and HEAL academies have attended, and presented at, the yearly California Partnership Academies conference (Educating for Careers). Staff have also attended and presented at the California League of High Schools (CLHS) conferences. Many staff members have attended IB trainings in preparation for the implementation of the program in the fall of 2015. Several more staff will be attending upcoming trainings this summer. Faculty members involved with AVID, HEAL, DATA, MESA and other programs and pathways attend conferences and seminars throughout the year.

Career Technical Education Programs

CCHS offers several programs that focus on Career Technical Education. The Digital Arts and Technology Academy (DATA) and the Health and Environmental Academy of Learning (HEAL) are California Partnership Academies that follow state guidelines implementing a blend of academics and CTE classes for all of their students. These programs follow CPA requirements for collection and disaggregation of data, and ensures that all students in these academies are provided opportunities to work and meet with professionals working in fields that directly correlate to the academies' focus. There are many CTE courses offered in both programs; DATA offers strands of courses that focus on either digital storytelling or digital photography; HEAL offers strands that focus on preparation for a career in the medical field. Both the HEAL and DATA academies monitor student performance and work with students in a tutorial setting to help when students are struggling academically. A Mathematics, Engineering, Science Achievement (MESA) program was introduced to CCHS students four years ago, and a Robotics program was added two years ago. Students involved in these programs are able to compete against other students in both Riverside County and in Southern California. Each year, CCHS is able to place several students in the district-run Cosmetology program, offering students an 18-month program to earn a cosmetology license. Special Needs students receive career-focused training through the Adult Transition Program (ATP). These students go out into the community to develop the skills and knowledge necessary for them to live a more independent life style upon completing the program at age 22. The Severely Handicapped (SH) program begins bringing students into the community grades 9-12 to begin preparing students for the ATP. The counselors at CCHS offers students guidance through the website Career Cruising. Students learn about a variety of career opportunities and the school employs a full-time Career Technician who further assists students with research in the Career Center. Principal Guillermo Chavez and counselors Deborah Applebaum and Ruth Kwake all serve on the district's CTE advisory committee, working with Director of Linked Learning Dr. Diana Lamar.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district, the county, and the state. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.
